474 Maker Equipment

The library's maker equipment is available to Indian Prairie Public Library cardholders.

Patrons are not permitted to use the library's equipment to create objects which are:

- Prohibited by local, state or federal law.
- Unsafe, harmful, dangerous or pose a threat to the well-being of others.
- In violation of the terms of use of the manufacturer of the equipment.
- Obscene, sexually explicit or inappropriate for the library environment.
- In violation of a person's intellectual property rights, e.g. the equipment may not be used to reproduce objects which are protected by a copyright, patent or trademark.

The library reserves the right to review and approve all materials before production. The design may be examined to ensure compliance with this policy and whether it is capable of production. If there is a problem with the design and/or production, the patron will be informed of the problem(s) and the change(s) needed before the design can be made. The library cannot guarantee that a production job will be completed within a particular time frame. The library recognizes that an original design is the property of the designer and we will not duplicate that design for someone else.

The library reserves all rights to:

- Refuse any request.
- Stop the project due to time or equipment capabilities.
- Set a limit as to the maximum amount of time a project may take.
- Set a price for projects.
- Limit the number of requests.
- Limit access to maker services to Indian Prairie Public Library District cardholders.
